

Mettex Electrical Co Ltd manufactures to customer specifications, and industry standards, woven wire including electrical connectors, flexible bus bars, electrical and mechanical braided products, and special cables in copper, aluminium, galvanized steel, stainless steel.

This Environmental Policy will be the building blocks and driver for Mettex Electric Co Ltd as a business over the next three years. The key points in our strategy to achieve this are as follows:

-  The Mettex Leadership is committed to ensuring that the Environmental Management System is continually reviewed and where necessary updated, ensuring that it meets all domestic and international governmental policies and regulatory standards, to protect both the business, employees, and its surroundings.
-  To ensure that our materials are responsibly and ethically sourced by our suppliers, in line with national and international regulations and legislation.
-  Key Performance Indicators will be one of the main drivers of our business performance analysis and continued improvement. These indicators will aid the business understand opportunities for reducing waste as well as identifying areas for improvement.
-  Invest in greener energy company vehicles.
-  Promoting energy conservation and the use of greener energy, to aid reduce climate change.
-  Promoting careful avoidance of waste by evaluating operations and ensuring they are as efficient as possible.
-  Meeting and exceeding all environmental legislation with regards to emissions and pollution.
-  Eliminating land fill waste by successful waste management and promote recycling both internally and amongst customers and suppliers
-  Sustaining an Environmental Management System certified to BS EN ISO:14001

We will achieve these objectives by increasing the knowledge & competence within the Company through our training system by employing methods such as "on-the-job training" and when required, external tuition. These objectives and their effect on the performance of the environmental management system are communicated to all employees to increase their knowledge of the Company's strategy. Reviews of this policy will be conducted periodically to ensure that it captures the requirements of Mettex Environmental Management System, Mettex customers, Regulatory Authorities and International Standards.